

School Councils, Conflict Resolution and Janusz Korczak

Celebrating Holocaust Memorial Day 27th January 2010

Event date: Tuesday 26th January 2010 Time: 10am - 12.30pm

Venue: Tower Hamlets Town Hall, Mulberry Place, East India Dock E14 2BG

Category: Primary School Council (KS2/3) and their link teachers (Max 8 students)

Price: Free

Training session with guest speaker Anna Roth, Jewish Museum Education Officer. Students explore the life and work of Janusz Korczak, educationalist and doctor, director of a democratic orphanage in the Warsaw Ghetto, founder of the world's first children's run newspaper, and one of the originators of the United Nations Convention on Children's Rights. Students will examine how Korczak's work can be used in schools and school councils, by acting as journalists to create a Question Time interview.

Supporting children's voice in schools and local government as celebrated by the Town Hall's Fair Play Wall. Teaching resource is available to download on www.global.lgfl.net under 'highlights'

Exhibition available for loan

Exhibition from the Jewish Museum, just returned from a national tour. A set of movable stand-alone banners looking at life in the Warsaw Ghetto and the life of the Korczak and his children.

Book for a week from us, for more information contact hec@gn.apc.org

Humanities Education Centre, Tower Hamlets PDC, English Street, E3 4TA

T: 020 7364 6405 | F: 020 7364 6422 | E: hec@gn.apc.org | W: www.eastendtalking.org.uk

* * * * *

School Councils, Conflict Resolution and Janus Korczak

Booking form

Please tick the following items and complete the form below

I would like to book my students to attend the school council event	Number of students:
I would like to book the exhibition about Korczak for one week in January	Date:

Name of school
Your name
Position
Tel:		Fax:
Email:
Year/class		Students name/s

Send the complete the form to Sharifa Khanom

Email: sharifa.khanom@towerhamlets.gov.uk Fax: 020 7364 6422

Mail: Humanities Education Centre, Tower Hamlets PDC, English Street, London E3 4TA

You will then receive confirmation for the day